READ TOGETHER

---

Jonah 1:1–3

It's easy to judge Jonah, but what if we were in Jonah's shoes? Read Jonah 1:1-3 again.

1. Has God ever asked you to do something specific?
2. What was your response? (Did you do it or ignore Him? Did you share what He asked?)
3. Is He calling you to do something now?

LIVE IT

---

Two young men, both slight in stature, were on a road trip and stopped at a convenience store. One gassed up the car, while the other popped into the store to get a drink. On the way out, he struck up a conversation with a colossal-sized man of different ethnicity. The humongous man asked for help from the young men. You see, he had just gotten out of prison. The young men were feeling particularly scrawny now, scared and suspicious. They nearly ran away. But God encouraged them to be kind to the man. He used them to speak truth into his life, setting his brokenness back onto a path of restoration with God and this world.

The man's name is Frank.

LEAN ON GOD

---

Dear God,

Thank you for Frank. Thank you for turning fear into courage. Help us hear You and do what You want us to do. Please encourage us to stand firm and stop running away.

In Jesus name,

Amen
